What Have I learnt...

- * Challenges
- * Culture
- * Team

*Experience tell us what to do,
Confidence allows us to do it*

What is the secret in hosting a successful Championships

- ❑ STEAL! Take away what you like, not what you don't like
 - ❑ Net working - Seeing is believing
 - ❑ Olympics - It's not about your school, community, city/town...It's about the athletes/all the teams
 - ❑ Small things go a long way - What can they use/keep forever, what will they remember
 - ❑ Make big things bigger - Opening/Closing Ceremonies, Banquet, The big show!
 - ❑ Coaching staff - Chance to say THANK YOU!
 - ❑ I Remember...
 - * Cranbrook BC - summer games opening ceremonies
 - * Hawaii - PacRim Tournament (Hawaiian Lei) reflects your community/culture
 - * Vanderhoof BC - The students (hoosiers)
 - * St John's Newfoundland - the people & opening ceremonies
 - * Souris Toba - venue (posters, flags, etc)
 - * Salt Lake City - POG award - conclusion of each match
 - * Stratford Hall Van BC- Opening Ceremonies - Drum performance
 - * Wilcox Sask - History & feeling part of it
- Many, many more...

*People may forget what you said,
or what you did,
but people will never forget how you made them feel.*

The Olympic Creed

Pierre de Coubertin got the idea for this phrase from a speech given by Bishop Ethelbert Talbot at a service for Olympic champions during the 1908 Olympic Games. The Olympic Creed reads:

"The most important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part, just as the most important thing in life is not the triumph but the struggle. The essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well."
